

Wirhahh Skip Felagr provide excellent living history events tailored to suit all venues

Gina Couch, World Museum Liverpool

About us

Now in our 20th Anniversary Year Wirhahh Skip Felagr (The Wirral Ship Fellowship) is Merseyside's leading early medieval Living History group, and is part of the larger international reenactment society Regia Anglorum.

Wirhahh Skip Felagr focus on providing Viking Reenactment & Living History displays of the Hiberno Norse who settled the Wirral from 902AD, but we cover all aspects of the Viking period from 793AD to 1066AD.

Wirhahh Skip Felagr are renowned for their craft skills that bring everyday Viking Wirral vividly to life. Learn the skills the Vikings used to survive life 1000 years ago.

Wirhahh Skip Felagr
www.wirralvikings.org.uk

Viking Crafts brought to life

Wirhahh Skip Felagr - The Wirral Ship Fellowship demonstrates Viking skills in interactive craft displays and activities

Exciting Activities

Educational presentations on:

- Wood working and carving
- Bone / Antler working
- Fishing techniques, Netting
- Cookery
- Weaving, Sewing, Nålebinding
- Dyeing, Spinning, Tablet weaving
- Leather working
- Medicine and injury treatment
- Fire lighting
- Quern stone
- 10th century trader
- String making with nettles

To find out more about exciting craft days feel free to contact us

Wirral Vikings
www.wirralvikings.org.uk